

20260506 Tongs Are the Latest Symbolic Expression from the Demon

Philosophically, I have already studied this concept that oppressors use 'tongs' to carry out their dirty deeds rather than personally engage with the object that they wish to influence.

At 11:26am (as I pick up tongs to hand-wash in my load of dishes)(and now as I clip this text from the original source document) loud exhausted vehicles hurriedly scurry (like rats) past my home.

See, there is an ongoing pattern of signals and 'signs' that show me constantly that my movements are being monitored by a spying apparatus that is using very advanced level spying tools to 'watch' over our home.

When I move here, this happens, when I move there, that happens. When I pick up this dish to wash this happens, when I pick up that item, something else happens. This is an ongoing repeating pattern that is being used to 'send me a message' - BIG BROTHER IS USING THE ADVANCED SPYING TECHNOLOGY OF THE UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT TO SPY ON AND THREATEN POLITICAL ACTIVISTS IN THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA.

Anyway, Donald Trump's team wants me to mention the tongs, so here are the tongs:

[126] A Greek Emperor who magnanimously volunteered to settle by a duel his quarrel with a Bulgarian Prince, got the following answer: — "A smith who has tongs will not pluck the glowing iron from the fire with his hands."

Good luck, Donald. You have an obsession with my home and you must be learning a great deal about your evil ways from my advanced levels of philosophical research.

You are, provably, living inside of a hell that is of your own creation, old man.

You have opted to live out your dreams of being the Satanic 'ruler' of the entire world - and these are the consequences of your own creation - not God's.

I will discuss more on the consequences of your own creation later.

But for now, continue to use your 'tongs' to avoid the (legal) 'duel' of my lawsuit against you.
